Class Colors:
Blue and Silver

Class Motto:
"A journey of 1000 miles starts with a single step."

Class Song:
"A Time for Us"

A Time for Us someday there'll be when chains are torn by courage born of a love that's free,
a time when dreams so long denied can flourish
as we unveil the hope we now must hide.

A time for us at last to see a life worthwhile for you and me,
and with our faith through tears and thorns
we will endure as we pass surely through ev'ry storm.

A Time for Us someday there'll be a new world,
a world of shining hope for you and me.

Class History

In 1965 the war began, the commanding officer being George A. Donovan. His fresh recruits reported in September for basic training. Our first big task was to decipher our schedules, which deserves a diploma in itself. About the only thing worth mentioning in seventh grade, occurred when a bunch of boys decided to hold a bonfire in one of the auditorium lamps.

A new training site was picked at the incomplete middle school where we were mixed with the seventh graders in an experiment of mass confusion. The year was distinguished by Mr. Friend's act of guerrilla warfare, throwing a hand grenade into a math class. The effects of a lunch boycott paved the way for our triumphant entry into the high school!

The wonderful experience of high school was now ours to behold! Mrs. Skinner and Mr. Kaufman were our advisors, while Gary Mazzone was President with Rosland Britt as Vice-President, Chris St.Cyr as Secretary, and Nancy Pitney as Treasurer.

In keeping with the tradition of Freshman Day, white bobby socks were our label. We kept in the Freshman trend with the loss of our first pep rally with the theme "Spirit, Let's Hear It".

The biggest event in two hundred years was the Bicentennial in the spring of 1968. The occasion was marked with fireworks, a parade, amusements, and an old steam roller which paved the way for student parking. The year was also marked with the transfer of the Great White Chief, George A. Donovan. And, of course, we must not fail to mention David Erickson's great debut on Senior Class Night with his snake imitations.

The year of 1969 started with a new advisor, Mrs. Huey; President Rosland Britt, Vice-President Joseph Dempsey, Secretary Joyce Farnham, and Treasurer Gail Fournier. This year we were "on the road to victory," but ended up in the "Dungeon".

With sincere regrets, we said goodbye to Vice-Principal Armand J. Regalbutti and Guidance Counselor Michael Pappas.

"Erupting with spirit" we entered the Junior year having Mr. Pippin replacing Mrs. Huey as class advisor. Officers were Gary Wormstedt, president; Steve Tomolonis, vice-president; Valerie Martin, secretary; and Anita Tracy, treasurer.

Waiting for us were an abundant variety of rings accompanied with free comment. Yes, you know the "jimcrows in the back of the bus". The art auction came with John Barry buying a kiss from Polly Taylor. This Magic Moment arrived at the Willow Glen with Queen Linda Reigienius followed by Pam Blocker, Sharon Sunega, Joanne Allen, and Patty Pedone as members of the court.

Farewells were made to Mr. Lundquist, principal; Mr. Anders, vice-principal; and Dr. Michaud, superintendent.

The Senior year started out with a bang, namely two false bomb scares. Our last new advisor, Miss Gail O'Shea, volunteered for Mr. Kaufman's place. President Steve Krpata has been aided by his faithful write-in vote Vice-President Gary Mazzone, and Secretary Martha Allen and Treasurer Diane Stocinis.

The fear of no Senior privileges subsided with an eloquent speech which won our new principal's (Mr. Woods) confidence. Senior talk study halls and early dismissal for those with F and G study halls was especially appreciated.

"Victory is our bag" was first in basketball decorations in support of a team so inspired to make the Class C Tournament Semi-finals.

Springing into view are the musical "Oklahoma" (whose cast is composed mainly of Seniors), an April Senior Dance, a Senior outing, and last, but not least, graduation. Under some unknown source of guidance the Class of 1971 will make its way into the world. And as Stanley's beautiful flowers bloom so will our class.

A Tribute

RICHARD J. MACKINTOSH
East Windsor Board of Education

1957-1970

When the class of 1971 entered the first grade, Mr. Richard Mackintosh had already begun his career as a member of the East Windsor Board of Education. During his tenure in office our school system increased its enrollment from 1415 students in 1957 to 2158 in 1970.

During those years many educational improvements were made. These included the enlargement of the high school and both grammar schools; the building of the East Windsor Middle School; the development of many new courses and programs to benefit the students.

Mr. Mackintosh was twice chairman of the board — 1965-1966 and 1969-1970.

The Archive takes pride in expressing its appreciation to one of East Windsor's most dedicated citizens.
